CITY IN BRIEF.

James Board, colored, has been sent to the Grand Jury for examination on a charge of larceny.
 Minnie J. Gates is on trial for a charge of the peace. Mary E. Russie is the prosecuting witness.

Colonel James B. Black will address the Morton Club at their rooms to-night on "Grant." The public is invited.
 One of the walls of the block at 225 East Washington street fell yesterday afternoon. No one was hurt. W. S. Ambolter occupies the property.

Dr. J. N. Craig, of Allisonville, who died on Wednesday, was buried yesterday. During the war Dr. Craig was Surgeon of the Thirtieth Indiana, and during that period contracted the disease which caused his death.

The State Educational Department has forwarded to the Indiana educational exhibits at New Orleans a collection of photographic views of various schools throughout the State, also a number of books by Indiana authors.

Mrs. Julius Joshami, of Brookside avenue, reported yesterday to the police that her husband, a dairyman, is missing, having last been seen on Wednesday, when he came to the city in his wagon. He was a sober, industrious citizen.

Louis Robinson, while under the influence of liquor, yesterday afternoon fell down on the sidewalk and sustained painful injuries about the head and face. He was locked up at the Central station, and Police Surgeon Hodges dressed his wounds.

James Hardesty, the boy who was recently arrested for passing $10 counterfeit bills with a man named Reno, is dangerously ill with typhoid pneumonia at the City Hospital. His disease is thought to have been aggravated by a vicious attack made on him by another jail prisoner recently, who cut him several times over the head and face.

The directors of the First National Bank of Indianapolis met yesterday and declared a dividend of 4 per cent, payable to stock holders on demand.

The Modern Laboring Men's Association of the United States was incorporated yesterday. The Grand Lodge is at Terre Haute. James Morris, John Martin and D. C. Williams are the trustees. The association is benevolent in its purposes.

The initial number of The Crisis, a trade and labor paper, published by Samuel Leffingwell, has made its appearance and asks a place in the field of Indianapolis journalism. The make-up is good, the matter excellent and the field large. Success to the new enterprise.

The Street Commissioner has issued his notice to citizens to clean up ashes and filth accumulated during the winter. Several parties are resisting the notice on the ground that their tenants made the litter, but they are nevertheless responsible for the condition of their premises.

Officers Pope and Rogers arrested a couple of young chaps last evening at the depot whose conduct did not indicate a determination by them to observe the rules of the peace. One of the men had a 42-bulldog revolver in his hip-pocket and the other was remarkable for a large plaster over his eye where some person's fist had struck him. They were sent to the station-house.

John C. Phillips, claiming to be a resident of Hicksville, DeWitt County, Ohio, came yesterday to the city to draw his pension and was arrested on order of J. P. Frenzel and sent to the police station. The arrest was made on the strength of a letter from the bank at Manning, Iowa, which said a pension draft had been cashed by them, made to Mr. Phillips, which looked crooked. Phillips declares he is innocent of any wrong. The officers of Manning were notified and are on their way here for Phillips.

THE STATE HEALTH BOARD.

The Democratic Members Meet, but Do Not Elect a Secretary.

At the quarterly meeting of the State Board of Health it was agreed to meet again on yesterday, by which time the new member was to have been appointed. Last week, however, Dr. Lomax, President of the board, telegraphed the Secretary that by consent of a majority the meeting had been postponed to the 15th, in order that the merits of the respective candidates for the Secretaryship might be fully canvassed by the members of the board. Yesterday, however, the Democratic members put in an appearance and transacted some routine business, but declined to proceed to the election of a Secretary on account of the absence of the Republican members, postponing that event to the 15th inst. Among other things the following communication was addressed to the members of the General Assembly:

"The undersigned members of the Indiana State Board of Health would respectfully represent that they are informed that there is a proposition before your honorable body requiring the board to pay for the printing of its annual report out of the regular appropriation of $5,000 for this board.

"We would respectfully suggest that if such a proposition prevails, the residue of the appropriation will be wholly inadequate to carry on the work of the Board successfully, and we would earnestly and respectfully protest against such action."

In conversation with one of the new members, he said that he had been notified that the board would meet yesterday; again, that an adjournment had been ordered upon to the 15th, and then again he had received a telegram from State Auditor Rice telling him to be sure and come to yesterday's meeting. Each of the three received a like telegram and in accordance therewith they came to the meeting. They declined to elect a President or Secretary out of courtesy to the Republican members, who were absent, but these officers will be chosen at the next meeting. As there appeared to be a suspicion that the last adjournment had been ordered for other purposes than those stated, Dr. Elder was seen yesterday and questioned with regard to the matter. He said there would be no candidates for the Secretaryship save Democrats, and that the two Republican members of the board desired an adjournment that the merits of all might be discussed, and when the Democrats agreed upon a good man it was the intention of Drs. Lomax and Partridge to vote with them for his election, thus making his choice unanimous and so far as possible by such means to make the board efficient in its work. He assured the reporter that there was nothing irregular in the further adjournment of the board, and that it was done purely in the interest of the health of the State—to give ample time for the selection of a competent Secretary.

Dr. Elder said further that he was not nor would he be a candidate for the position; that the change was really money in his pocket, and that the practice of his profession would fully occupy his time.

Protecting Their Workmen.

The Sarven Wheel Works, Nurdyke, Marmon & Co. and several other wood working establishments in our city have covered their buzz-saws with the new improved "K" Saw-Guards. A thorough trial of this life-saving invention has demonstrated its entire practicability. It is quite improbable that any one will be cut on a saw thus protected. They prevent splinters, loose knots and saw dust from flying in the workman's face and eyes, and as the work itself is considerably facilitated with the guard on, and the price of a guard is only $1, it is hoped that proprietors of wood-working establishments generally will see the importance of protecting their workmen from accidents and themselves from damage suits by making their buzz-saws as harmless as they are useful. These guards are manufactured by the National Saw Guard Company, of Indianapolis, Ind. They guarantee the guards to do all that is claimed for them. In fact, any responsible factory can have guards to put on and try before they buy, and thus take no risks of being deceived.

Insane on the Subject of Religion.

A very nice looking and well dressed man, about thirty years of age, giving the name of Wesley L. Walls, has been boarding at No. 39 Indiana avenue since Tuesday. About 7 o'clock last night the other boarders heard somebody praying in Mr. Walls' room in a very loud tone of voice, and investigation proved that it was that gentleman himself. He stopped praying suddenly, and began jumping about the room in a wild manner, and it soon became apparent to all that he was insane. Several strong men seized him, and through their combined efforts managed to hold him until the patrol wagon arrived. He was locked up at the Central Station, where a large number of Sunday-school papers and tracts were found in his possession, indicating that he had gone insane on the subject of religion.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

 —Samuel D. Porter Ordered
 North for Ten Years.

 W. F. Flick has given bond in the sum of $5,800 as guardian of Charles G. and Rosa Hartsock, minor heirs of Wilson C. Hartsock, deceased.

Dennis Bryan has filed suit on a due bill for $28.81, made by I. and H. Jackson to Milton Ponder, who assigned to plaintiff. Demand is made for $600.

Building Permits—J. N. Rogers, $1,000 frame, on Meridian street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets; W. F. Piel, Jr., $5,000 brick, on Washington street, near Arsenal avenue; Martin Reiffel, $2,000 frame, on Russell avenue, between McCarty and Merrill streets; H. Baile, $1,500 frame, on Blake street, at the corner of Elizabeth street.

The Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Portland, Me., has filed a suit against James Buchanan and others to collect notes, set off judgment, etc. The complaint alleges that in January, 1874, Buchanan and W. J. Davis made two notes, the first for $3,000 and the second for $1,050 to J. M. Tilford, who afterward indorsed them over to the Bank of Commerce, both of which are due and unpaid. Buchanan is deceased and Davis is a non-resident. In May, 1881, Buchanan recovered a judgment against plaintiff for $3,118.16, $600 of which he assigned to Gordon, Lamb & Shepard, $100 to G. B. Manlove, and pretended to assign to E. S. Pope $2,418.16, but that this was not made in good faith and it was done with fraudulent intent. Afterward Pope became embarrassed and was induced to make a pretended assignment to Shepard as trustee. The $600 to Gordon, Lamb & Shepard was for attorneys' fees. Judgment is demanded as above.

U. to hold its convention in the parlors, and also to grant the Young People's Union the privilege of holding a newsboys' social there. Mrs. Siddall called attention to the gospel meeting to be held each Wednesday evening at the rooms 76 North Pennsylvania street.
